

Project title

Social reinsertion and reintegration and disciple formation of detainees.

Project Description

This project is a transversal project aiming to provide social, psychological, and spiritual guidance to at least 1,500 women and children detained at the prisons of Cap-Haitian, Grand Rivière du Nord, and Fort Liberté by providing technical and professional metiers to them. Help them to reconcile with themselves, with God, and with society, and to reintegrate into the community peacefully after prison to pursue their own career.

With this project, we engage to reduce the rate of social violence and crime in our communities and orient those detained toward the sustainable development process of Haiti.

Objective

- Train 30 professional in Social Reinsertion
- Assist at least 1,500 women and children detained per year detained to social reinsertion
- Provide professional and technical metiers to those detained
- Distribute at least 3,000 kits per year to those detained
- Introduce those women and children to diverse career pathways
- Engage those women and children in projects addressing real-life community challenges

Target Audience

Women and children at the Prison of Cap-Haitian, Grande Rivière du Nord, and Fort Liberté.

Author

Hants TEMENE

- Coordinator of Open Hearts Training Center-OHTC, Cap-Haitian, Haiti
- Lawyer at the Bar of Cap-Haitian, Haiti
- Professor of Project Management, Practical Theology and Human Rights Law
- Ph.D (Cand.) in Practical and Ecumenical Theology and Theological Ethics at the Protestant Theological Faculty of Charles University (Univerzita Karlova), Prague, Czech Republic
- Certified Project Officer-CPO with Center for Project Innovation CPI, Washington DC, USA
- Curriculum Designer Studio with The Cloud Institute, New York, USA

E-mail: hantstemene@gmail.com

Phone: +(509)3588-7170